Automated Recurring Billing™

Automate Transactions with Convenient Subscription Billing

Automated Recurring Billing™ (ARB) is a convenient and easy-to-use tool for submitting and managing recurring, or subscription-based, transactions. You can take advantage of ARB's flexible features to simplify transactions, enhance customer service, and build customer loyalty, while reducing authorization declines and overall administrative costs.

Improve Billing Efficiency

ARB automates and manages recurring billing transactions so you can focus on growing your business.

+ Simply create a subscription that includes the customer's payment information, billing amount, and payment schedule. Create new subscriptions manually, from previously settled transactions, or via batch upload.
+ Provide your online customers with a subscription or installment payment option on your Web site's custom payment form.*
+ Once a subscription begins, no additional maintenance is required through the life of the subscription.
+ Receive e-mail notices of pending credit card number and/or subscription expirations before the next scheduled payment.

Reduce Costs

ARB eliminates many of the costs associated with manual billing.

+ Automated billing helps prevent lost business due to discontinued subscriptions.
+ Unlike competing products, ARB has no additional per-transaction fee.
+ You may qualify for interchange rate discounts, depending on your processing network and business category.
